PLAN RAID ON SIX
MORE BROKERSDistrict Authorities Pushing Bucket Shop Crusade.

GRAND JURY WILL ACT

Defendants Prepare to Make a Vigorous Fight.Given Warnings Operators to Cease
Illegal Methods—Two of the Five Brokers Arrested Yesterday Furnish Bond—Declare They Are Innocent of Wrongdoing, and Will Continue to Conduct Business.

The Official Warning.

Those who heretofore engage in the bucket-shop business in the District of Columbia will do so at their peril. This crusade will not end until we have accomplished the apprehension of every man in the business—Assistant United States Attorney Harvey Given.

The police department will co-operate to the fullest extent with the district attorney's office in prohibiting gambling in any form, bucket shop or otherwise, by the gamblers of high or low degree.—Major Sylvester.

The Brokers' Reply.

The brokers will fight the proceedings instituted by the district attorney to the last ditch. If business is interfered with an injunction will be filed with the court. Criminal indictments will be met with demurrers and the ground for the same tested in the higher courts.—William E. Ambrose, Attorney for the Brokers.

More raids upon the alleged bucket shops of the District are scheduled by the district attorney's office for to-day. Assistant United States District Attorney Harvey Given announced last night that the policy of his office is to exterminate the business of laying and receiving bets upon the rise and fall of the stock market, and to this end the entire machinery of the District government will be invoked if necessary.

With the sanction of District Attorney Baker, Mr. Given has for several months been engaged in the accumulation of evidence, a portion of which has already been presented to the grand jury. More evidence is to follow, and it is expected that the grand jury will conclude its deliberations on this subject by Monday or Tuesday of next week, after which a number of indictments are looked for.

Six additional concerns are under the surveillance of the authorities, and raids on all or part of these are planned for to-day.

Brokers Will Fight Hard.
On the other hand, the brokers have determined to fight the proceedings with all the power at their command. Through their attorney, William E. Ambrose, last night it was announced that the defendant brokers would open their places of business to-day as usual.

If they are interfered with, they will apply to the district court for an injunction citing the District authorities to show cause why they should not be allowed to carry on their usual operations in stocks for their patrons. It was further stated that an able defense would be prepared.

The brokers were in a cheerful frame of mind last night over the expectation of defeating the government both upon technical grounds and upon the showing of the offices that over legitimate transactions had been carried on.

Five Offices Visited.

Five offices were visited by the police yesterday. These were:
CHESLEY & SPENCE, Colorado Building, Fourth and G streets, and Seventh and F streets.
WADE & HEDGES, Quay Building.
ALLISON C. JENKINS, 125 F street.
FRANK KANE, 125 F street.

A number of papers and books were taken from each place to be used as evidence against the managers, but none of the men in the offices was molested, although each of them was summoned to appear at the district attorney's office by this morning and furnish bail for his appearance in court.

Mr. Spence and Mr. Kane appeared and gave bail last night before the court closed. They were held in $1,000 each. Against those stock brokers and any others that are arrested, prosecutions will be instituted for alleged violation of sections 855 and 856 of the District code, which prohibit "gaming."

Provisions of the Law.

These read as follows:
Section 855. Whoever shall in the District set up any gaming table, in any house, vessel, or place, on land or water, for the purpose of gaming or gambling, a device commonly called A B C, faro bank, R. O., roulette, equality, rack, rummy, or little joker, or any kind of gaming table or gambling device adapted, devised, and designed for the purpose of playing any game of chance for money or property, or shall induce, entice, and permit any person to bet or play at or upon any such gaming table or device, gambling device, or on the side of or against the keeper thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment of not more than five years.

Section 856. What is a gaming table: All games, devices, or contrivances at which money or any other thing shall be bet or wagered shall be deemed a gaming table within the meaning of this section; and the court shall construe the preceding sections liberally, so as to prevent the mischief intended to be guarded against.

Want to Continue Business.

"I have been requested by the stock brokers to permit them to continue in business until action is taken by the grand jury," said Mr. Given, last night. "My reply was that I would communicate their request to District Attorney Baker, who is away on his vacation and would be guided by his directions. In the meantime the policy of the district attorney's office is to close every 'bucket shop' in the city, though there will be no interference in a legitimate brokerage business. Those who engage in the 'bucket shop' methods, however, will do so at their peril."

Mr. Given endeavored to get into communication with District Attorney Baker

WEATHER FORECAST.

For the District of Columbia—
Rain to-day, probably followed by fair and warmer. To-morrow, fair; fresh southerly winds.

GOVERNMENT PROBES

Federal Authorities Take a Hand in Race Riot Case.

UNITED STATES MAIL FIRED ON

Post-office Inspector Looking Up Facts in Recent Trouble at Onancock, and Accused Negroes May Face Charge Involving Terms in a Federal Penitentiary.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Norfolk, Va., Aug. 23.—The Federal government has taken a hand in the recent rioting on the Eastern Shore to the extent of investigating the firing on the stage coach. It is said that the coach carried United States mail, and the government is interested on that ground.

The interests of the government in the case have been placed in the hands of Post-office Inspector Matthews, and that officer is hard at work. He was here to-day and had a lengthy interview in the city jail with J. D. Uzzell, the negro editor who is alleged to have been one of those who instigated the firing on the coach.

Face a Serious Charge.

Should the identity of those who did the firing or who may have instigated it be found out, the Federal government will probably deal harshly with them. Firing on a mail coach is no small matter to Uncle Sam. Inspector Matthews would say nothing as to any evidence he may have obtained, or anything about the course the government may pursue.

The negroes, Sylvanus Conquest and Sam Burton, who gave themselves up to the militia now doing garrison duty at Onanock and Tazewell, were brought here to-night by a detail of soldiers, commanded by Maj. Salomonson and Capt. Gale.

Talley Will Not Talk.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 23.—Assistant United States District Attorney Talley refused to-day to discuss the reported action of the government against Uzzell, Burton, and the other negroes who are believed to be responsible for the recent race riots at Onanock and Tazewell, and are said to have instigated the shooting into a hack containing United States mail.

It is a very serious offense to interfere with the United States mails, whether in transit or otherwise, and the Federal authorities will undoubtedly not allow such an action to pass unquestioned.

HALTS FUGITIVE WITH GUN.

Delaware's Only Woman Mail Carrier Captures Jailbreaker.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Wilmington, Del., Aug. 23.—Mrs. L. A. Donohoe, of Edgemore, the only woman rural mail carrier in Delaware, was a heroine.

To-day unaided she captured an escaped negro prisoner at the point of a revolver. Samuel Stewart, Alfred Cooper, of Washington, and Walter Gillis, of Wilmington, all negroes, were arrested for acting suspiciously in the Edgemore freight yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Watchman Plumline, after arresting the trio, locked them in an office, while he notified railroad detectives.

Stewart jumped through a window and dashed across the tracks. At this juncture Mrs. Donohoe emerged from the station with a mail bag. Seeing the man escaping, she ran in front of him, and drawing a pistol compelled him to halt and hold up his hands. Watchman Plumline then rearrested the negro. The other two negroes did not attempt to escape.

KELLOGG IN NEW YORK.

Standard Oil Inquirer Prepares for Hearing Soon.

New York, Aug. 23.—Frank B. Kellogg, who will commence taking testimony in this city on September 3 in the suit in the Federal court filed in St. Louis to dissolve the Standard Oil Company, arrived in this city to-day. He visited the financial district early.

He was in consultation with Attorney General Bonaparte, and the government officials yesterday. Prominent officials and representatives of the Standard Oil Company are included in the list of witnesses, and it is said the hearing will last several weeks.

Mr. Kellogg also conducted the investigation into the Harriman roads as special counsel for the government.

WORK ON CANAL STOPS.

Lack of Funds Causes Laying Off of Men at Panama.

Panama, Aug. 23.—Lack of funds is checking canal work. Four thousand men have been laid off on the new line of the Panama Railroad, and it is stated that the department of municipal engineering has been ordered to lay off 1,000 more. A reduction in the clerical force is also looked for.

The excavation for August will show a big increase over July.

READY TO BET ON BULL MOOSE

University President Scores So-called Nature-fakers.Head of Leland Stanford Agrees with Roosevelt in Criticizing
Some Marvelous Tales.

Boston, Aug. 23.—President Jordan, of Leland Stanford University, at the convention of zoologists to-day said that he agreed with President Roosevelt rather than with his critics on the question of nature-faking. When asked if it were possible for a wolf to kill a bull moose with a single bite, he said:

"I do not believe it is possible at all. I should lay bets on the moose."

When asked if a dog could kill a wolf with twenty bites, he said that it largely depended on what kind of a dog it was and where he hit the wolf.

When asked about the wolf guiding lost children home, he said if he had children he was fond of he would select some other guide.

Another question was asked him about a wolf in famished condition catching a squirrel and instead of eating it gave it to an older wolf as a tribute.

He denounced that statement as a fake, and said if the older wolf wanted it he should have been around and collected his tribute.

He was asked his opinion as to the declaration made to the effect that fish have been able to swim up waterfalls. In reply he said that the idea was ridiculous.

He denied the statement that the woodcock makes himself a kind of crutch when injured.

DIES WHEN BOY HITS BACK.

Mother Drops with Baby in Arms
While Punishing Son.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 23.—When Mrs. James Ingle, who lives at 29 View street, attempted to punish her twelve-year-old son this morning for disobedience, the boy commenced striking back at her, and in the scuffle that ensued Mrs. Ingle fell dead, with her young baby in her arms.

The exertion and excitement had killed her. Her baby, whom Mrs. Ingle was holding in her arms while she was attempting to punish her son, was picked up unhurt. The boy says he only struck his mother on the arm.

PRINCE OPENS OLD WOUNDS.

Mrs. Fish Scores Over Other Social Leaders with Royal Trump.

Newport, Aug. 23.—Prince Wilhelm of Sweden has stirred up more trouble in the millionaires' summer colony than Newport has known in many seasons.

Practically every plutocrat in the fashionable Rhode Island resort wanted to entertain the royal visitor. There was not enough of the prince, however, to go around, and, to make matters worse, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish secured his acceptance to two social affairs.

The second day of the visit was filled with entertainments in his honor. This morning, prior to his coming to Newport from his cruiser, he exchanged official visits with Rear Admiral Charles E. Davis, on the battle ship Alabama.

At noon, after a short drive, he and his suite were entertained with a luncheon at the home of former Senator and Mrs. George Peabody Wetmore. Mayor William P. Clarke visited the prince to-day, and to-night he was the guest at a large dinner given by Mrs. Ogden Mills. After the dinner Prince Wilhelm visited Masonic Hall, where the crew of his ship was being entertained by the Swedish residents of the city.

ALTON IN NEW HANDS

Control of Road Passes to "Clover Leaf" System.

HOSTILE TO E. H. HARRIMAN

Majority Interest, Owned by Rock Island, Transferred to Toledo, St.
Louis and Western—Formal Announcement of Transaction Causes Surprise in Financial Districts.

New York, Aug. 23.—Control of the Chicago and Alton, which the Rock Island party wrested from E. H. Harriman and his associates last June after a contest which began three years ago, has to all intents and purposes been transferred to the Toledo, St. Louis and Western.

The stock which will change hands on the formal ratification of the contract is the majority interest owned by the Rock Island company. Neither Mr. Harriman nor any of his associates were consulted in regard to the transaction, and the formal announcement of it to-day was as much of a surprise to them as to any one else in the financial district.

What Mr. Harriman will do with the Union Pacific's minority interest seemed to interest no representative of either the buying or selling company.

The men in control of the Toledo, St. Louis and Western, better known as the "Clover Leaf," are as hostile to Mr. Harriman as any of the Rock Island party have shown themselves to be. One of the most prominent of them, fell out with Mr. Harriman when the Rock Island party showed its hand in the Alton in 1904. Mr. Hawley has since resigned from the Union Pacific board.

Clover Leaf Coterie.

Associated with Mr. Hawley in the "Clover Leaf" are Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard, a former Southern Pacific director, who is suing that Harriman line to complete payment of interest on a bond issue; H. E. Huntington, interested as a plaintiff in the same suit; James N. Wallace, president of the Central Trust Company; Charles A. Tweed, until lately a member of Speyer & Co.; William A. Read, of the banking house of William A. Read & Co., and Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough-Metropolitan.

Mr. Shonts is president of the company, but has not been in charge of operation since he took control of Interborough-Metropolitan.

The prospective purchasers also control the Minneapolis and St. Louis, which owns a majority of the stock of the Iowa Central. On the ratification of the Alton transaction they will be in control of a system with a mileage of 2,885, and traversing one of the best traffic sections in the country. The transaction thus brings about one of the most important changes of the railroad map that has been made for many months.

Eventually the four roads will be merged into one compact system. Meanwhile the management of the four roads will be made among them. Clover Leaf officers will succeed Rock Island officers in the Alton.

President Felton to Retire.

Probably President S. M. Felton, of the Alton, who has been retained in office during both Rock Island and Union Pacific control of the road, will retire.

"We have had no relations with Mr. Felton," said a director of the Clover Leaf yesterday. "On the other hand, our relations are very intimate with and we have every confidence in Mr. Shonts, the president, and Mr. Root, the vice president, in charge of operations. In all probability one of these men will take Mr. Felton's place."

The most important contingency on which ratification of the contract rests is the decision of the government in the Alton immunity matter. The Clover Leaf people do not care to buy into a lawsuit, especially when the law suit offers a chance of a fine equal to the $23,260,000 imposed on the Standard Oil Company for taking rebates from the Alton. It has been expected that a decision on this matter would be reached by Judge Landis and the Department of Justice before this, but it is generally believed that the outcome will be favorable.

Alton officials insist that there is no question that immunity was promised, and that they kept faith.

As a formality, also, Clover Leaf officials are to inspect the physical condition of the Alton and go over the books. This inspection will be made within two weeks, and in case a favorable decision on the immunity matter is rendered by that time, the final papers will be signed early in September.

MCKINLEY CASKETS ORDERED.

CORTELYOU PLANS TO RELIEVE BANKSAnnounces Radical Change in Making Deposits.

PRESCRIBES SECURITIES

Will Put Out Money for Five Consecutive Weeks.

Secretary Says Method Is Preferable to Large Deposits in Moment of Acute Stringency—Money to Be Returned to Government in Installments After January 1—Amount to Be Deposited Not Announced.

New York, Aug. 23.—Secretary Cortelyou announced to-day a radical change in the Treasury Department's policy for relieving the commercial money market in periods of stringency.

Here is the Secretary's statement, given out at his summer home in Huntington, L. I.:

"Mr. Cortelyou announced to-day that, beginning with next week, the Treasury Department will make each week, for a period of not less than five weeks, deposits in national banks at New York, Boston, and other points, the security required to be approved State, municipal, or railroad bonds, acceptable under the existing requirements of the department, with the understanding that if called for, such deposits shall be returned after January 1 next in installments to be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Why Action Is Taken.

"This action is taken to meet the commercial and industrial needs of the country at this season, and is believed to be preferable to waiting until a time of acute stringency, when the only alternative would be a large general deposit. The latter policy the Secretary desired to supersede by one which shall have as its ultimate object the adjustment operations of the Treasury Department, as rapidly as may be practicable under existing laws, in such a manner as shall preclude their being in any sense a disturbing factor in the business world."

Mr. Cortelyou did not intimate the total amount that he stood ready to deposit in the banks in the next five weeks, but it is understood that he will do everything possible to meet the stringency of the crop-moving season. He will use the current customs receipts, and if necessary will supplement these by money from the Treasury balances. It has been estimated recently that he could deposit $40,000,000 in the banks without disturbing his working balance.

The Secretary, as indicated in the statement, will not confine his assistance to the large money centers of the East, as has usually been the case when the Treasury Department has come to the assistance of the money market. It is understood that Mr. Cortelyou has organized in the Treasury Department a bureau which is to keep him informed accurately on the money market conditions in the different parts of the country.

Hopes to Defeat English Bankers.

One of the features about Mr. Cortelyou's new plan for relief is that speculators will have no way of knowing exactly how much money can be depended upon from Treasury sources. It is understood that the Secretary hopes also by making weekly deposits to avoid the exporting of gold by European bankers. English bankers for the past week have been making overtures for shipments.

The exchange rate fell off somewhat to-day and the day before, but, nevertheless, bankers have been anticipating that shipments would follow any big lump deposit on the part of the Treasury Department. Mr. Cortelyou, it is understood, hopes that by making the deposits week by week the money will be absorbed.

The new policy will bring a great decrease in the moneys received by the subtreasury in this city, and its business with the banks will be largely diminished. Mr. Cortelyou's decision to put his plan into effect next week was undoubtedly brought about by the accurrences in commercial circles in the last week or ten days.

RATS COMMIT SUICIDE.

Nature-faker Gets Excellent Climax to His Delightful Yarn.

New York, Aug. 23.—Backing up their statements with offers of affidavits, Capt. Kruger, Chief Engineer Hansen, and other officers of the steamship Valdivia, of the Hamburg American Line, told to-day of the suicide of some 250 panic-stricken rats on the vessel at sea.

Rather than fight a huge tiger cat put down into the hold to clear them out, several hundred rats, said the officers, made for the steamer's decks and finally went overboard.

Chief Engineer Hansen said that several cats taken from New York were quickly killed by the rats after the vessel left Port Antonio, Jamaica. So when the ship touched at the island of Inagua, in the Windward Passage, two big tiger cats were obtained, and during the voyage the biggest one was put down into the hold of the vessel.

The big cat started in at once to clean out the rats, and within a half hour had killed scores. Then the main army of rats came up and scudded along the decks, a majority of them jumping overboard.

A little later the cat came up in full chase of a monster rat. The rat ran the full length of the deck and down through a hatchway, finally going into the sea. The cat followed and was drowned.
